Rockville Centre Pays Tribute on Memorial Day

Residents lined the streets to pay tribute to those who made the ultimate sacrifice protecting our nation's freedom this Memorial Day. The annual parade was led by Grand Marshal Marianna Winchester, a Gold Star mother. Marianna's son, Marine Corps Lt. Ronald Winchester, was killed in action when an improvised explosive device was detonated near his vehicle twenty years ago. Lt. Winchester was 25 years old and serving his second tour of duty in Iraq. Hosted by American Legion Post 303, the annual parade concluded at Veterans Park where hundreds gathered for a fitting ceremony to honor the memories of our fallen heroes. "Our annual Memorial Day parade and ceremony provides a time for our community to come together to honor and reflect upon the selfless dedication of our fallen military heroes," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "We are beyond fortunate to live in a nation where there have always been men and women who understood our nation's need and with honor answered the call of duty. We can never repay the debt of gratitude we owe to the men and women who have given all to preserve our freedom. But we can honor them, remember them, and cherish their families today and every day."

Vintage Car and Fire Truck Show

Over 40 trucks and cars were on display for the countless attendees at the Fourth Annual Vintage Car and Fire Truck Show. Families came out to the parking field along North Centre Avenue to cruise the impressive automotive displays. Thank you to Deputy Mayor Kathy Baxley and RVCFD member Dominick Alesi for organizing.

Fireworks Spectacular Takes to the Sky

The Annual Fireworks Celebration and Concert took to the skies on July 14th. Thousands of families and friends gathered to enjoy an evening under the stars with the iconic Grucci fireworks and performance by South Shore Symphony.

Music on the Green

Music on the Green returned to the Village on July 10th. Countless residents filled the Village Green to hear Sarah & Sophia kick-off the evening with popular covers of artists like Taylor Swift, as well as their very own original songs. Two Italian Dads got the crowd on their feet playing classic hits across different genres.

"Music on the Green has proven to be a favorite of our residents," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "It's great to see our neighbors come together for great company and tunes. A special thank you to Deputy Mayor Kathy Baxley for organizing this fantastic series." Mark your calendars! The next installment of Music on the Green will be held on Thursday, August 8th.

Around Our Community

37TH Annual Mayor's Golf Classic

On Monday, September 30th, the Rockville Centre Community Fund will host its 37th Annual Mayor's Golf Classic. The Classic, and accompanying dinner is the primary fundraiser for the Rockville Centre Community Fund, a not-for-profit tax-exempt charity dedicated to helping residents of the Village of Rockville Centre who have emergency financial needs.

"Whatever the need, local families have been able to count on the Community Fund during the past 37 years," commented Mayor Francis X. Murray. "The generosity and support we receive each year truly exemplifies what a great a caring community we have here in Rockville Centre."

This year's Classic will honor lifelong resident of Rockville Centre, Ed Asip. Ed has continuously demonstrated what it means to give back. In 2003, he joined the RVC Lions Club and served for three years as President. He currently manages the website and represents the Lions Club within the RVC Chamber of Commerce where he is a vital force in the successful collaboration of "Commerce and Service." In 2018, Ed was awarded the Lions Club highest honor, the Melvin Jones Fellowship by the Lions International Foundation. Earlier this year, he was elected President of the RVC Chamber of Commerce. He previously served as Treasurer for nine years while managing the website and several events. In 2023, the Chamber awarded Ed, the "RVC Businessperson of the Year" award. While Ed has much to be proud of, he is most grateful for his wife, Sandi, his three children, Jim, Andrew, and Katie, daughter-in-law, Dana, and especially being "Grandpa" to Brady and Scottie.

Tickets and sponsorships for the all-day event, as well as journal ads are still available. The donation for breakfast, lunch, cocktails and dinner, as well as a round of golf at the Rockville Links Country Club is $375. Dinner-only tickets are $125. For reservations or information about sponsorships and journal ads, please call Nancy Biaggi at (516) 678-9254 or email nbiaggi@rvcnyc.us.

RVCPD Recognizes Cop of the Month

In recognition of his dedicated performance on duty, Sergeant Burnside was named RVCPD's "Cop of the Month." While responding to a domestic incident, Sergeant Burnside met with a female complainant who expressed her concern for the well-being of her boyfriend who had already fled the scene. After checking the whole building and finding the stairwell door locked, Sergeant Burnside climbed the fire escape to check the roof. It was at this time he located the subject, standing on the ledge of the multi-story building. He immediately established a line of communication and convinced the subject to come down safely.

The Village commends Sergeant Burnside for his diligence, highly professional conduct, and sense of duty to our residents. We thank him for his continued service.

Village Justice Sworn into Office

The Incorporated Village of Rockville Centre held a general Village election on June 18th at the John A. Anderson Recreation Center. Judge Mindy Roman was elected to Village Justice, a one-year term. Justice Roman was sworn into office at the Organizational Meeting held on July 18th.

Are you Ready for Hurricane Season?

With hurricane season once again upon us, the Village of Rockville Centre cannot stress enough that all residents need to be prepared. The Atlantic hurricane season began on June 1st and lasts until November 30th.

The NOAA National Weather Service predicts an 85% above-normal hurricane season in the Atlantic basin. NOAA is forecasting a range of 17 to 25 total named storms (winds of 39 mph or higher). Of those, 8 to 13 are forecast to become hurricanes (winds of 74 mph or higher), including 4 to 7 major hurricanes (category 3, 4 or 5; with winds of 111 mph or higher). Forecasters have a 70% confidence in these ranges.

Residents are encouraged to be prepared and create an emergency plan beforehand and have all important papers in one spot. Flying debris from the excessive winds are often the deadly and destructive results of these weather events. Residents are encouraged to bring in all outdoor furniture, decorations, garbage cans and anything else that is not tied down. If you have construction activities underway, make sure the job site is secure before the storm hits.

There's a lot to remember when it comes to hurricane preparedness but making sure your trees are trimmed and healthy going into hurricane season is critical. Unhealthy and damaged trees can be the cause of major damage to homes and the electrical system.

Residents are encouraged to consult with an arborist to have their trees assessed and have any dead or weak trees and limbs removed.

Get alerted about emergencies and other important community news by signing up for the Village's free mobile app, MY RVC. Residents are also encouraged to enroll in Swift 911, which enables the Village of Rockville Centre to provide residents with critical timely information in a variety of situations, such as severe weather. Residents can register for Swift 911 on the Village's website at www.rvcny.gov.

The Village of RVC: Incorporated Since 1893 and Still Moving Forward

As an incorporated Village located within the Town of Hempstead, Rockville Centre remains a highly desirable community to call home. In close proximity to New York City, the Village has a thriving downtown, beautiful residential neighborhoods, and an award-winning school district.

As most residents are aware, as an incorporated Village, Rockville Centre is governed by "home rule," meaning that Rockville Centre has its own Village government comprised of the Mayor, Deputy Mayor, and Village Trustees. The officials are all local residents and are elected by Village residents.

The Village Board, along with our Village Administrator, are charged with governing and managing the day-to-day operations of our Village and meet regularly to ensure that the Village and its services are maintained in a cost efficient and effective manner.

One of the most desirable advantages of being an incorporated Village is in the providing of municipal services. Specifically, as an incorporated Village, Rockville Centre has its own Police Department, Fire Department, Electric Department, Water Department and Public Works Department. These are all essential services, which ensure the health, safety and welfare of all of our residents. When compared to the limited services in other nearby unincorporated Villages, the beneficial impact of being an incorporated Village is unquantifiable.

By having our own local government, the Village Board and Village Administrator are able to quickly address resident and business concerns in real time, by working efficiently and directly with our various department heads to target and ameliorate issues. By way of example, when residents and business owners voiced concern over an influx of more people and more traffic in our downtown, working with our Police Commissioner, Randy Dodd, and our Village Police Department, we were able to station more police officers in our downtown on busy week and weekend nights to maintain traffic flow and overall safety. Ultimately, it was determined that more law enforcement officers were required to fully staff our Police Department. After careful consideration, the Village Board authorized the hiring of four (4) new police officers to the Department to stay current with population and business trends.

In addition to upgrading our Police Department, at present, the Village Board is currently working with outside consultants to review and upgrade current Village code and zoning laws.

As an incorporated Village, we are able to implement new policies, more quickly and efficiently than an unincorporated municipality which would rely on Town or County government to make these changes for them. In addition, as an incorporated Village, we have the benefit of "close governance;" in that your Village board is made up of Village residents, who remain fully engaged with our residents, our business owners and our Village Departments on a daily basis, to ensure that any concerns or issues are quickly addressed for the benefit of our community as a whole.

Please know that the Mayor and the Village Board pride ourselves on our accessibility, and our willingness to listen and collaborate with our Village residents. We remain at your service to address any issue or concern, when called upon to do so. We look forward to continued collaboration with our residents and business owners, for many years to come.

Look What's Happening Around the Sandel Center

Former attorney and award-winning oil painter Kathy Maher had the idea for a writing workshop at Sandel several years ago. "Stories of life's heartbreak and beauty connects us in a way that lifts the soul. And what better place than Sandel to explore these stories filled with laughter, tears and wisdom. It's been a privilege to guide these dedicated writers. See you in the fall and keep writing!"

The Sandel Senior Center hosted a lively intergenerational picnic that brought together seniors and South Side High School students for a day of food, games, and desserts. The event was filled with laughter and joy as attendees participated in a lively game of hot potato and line dancing. The highlight of the day was the awarding of three $500 scholarships to deserving young students, Sophia Bracco, Kerry Cody, and Kyla Murphy, recognizing their achievements and community involvement. Additionally, the center honored a long-standing student volunteer, Heather Cuevas, with an award celebrating her contributions and dedication to the Sandel Senior Center. The picnic fostered a sense of togetherness and mutual appreciation across both generations.

The Sandel Center Stage Chorus, led by Frank Scafuri, delivered a wonderful performance on June 14th. The Chorus practices for six months gearing up for the Spring concert and they did not disappoint. They captivated the audience with spirited renditions of classic songs. The repertoire included beloved hits from Elvis Presley, Tom Jones, and Harry Belafonte with timeless tunes from the golden age of music. The seniors' enthusiasm and talent shined brightly on stage, filling the center with joy. Each performance was a delightful celebration of music and community, leaving the audience applauding for more. The Center Stage Chorus will start meeting again in September for the Holiday performance.

Residents are invited to break up the mid-week slump with a mindful and peaceful yoga class, led by Dominic Hawkins. The new yoga class is offered every Wednesday at 3 p.m. and is open to all Nassau County residents. It is hosted by the Nassau County Department of Human Services. Please bring your own mat, chairs will be provided if needed.

Sandel membership is open to those aged 60+ who reside in Rockville Centre and the surrounding communities. To become a member, please call (516) 678-9350 or visit our page on the Village website at www.rvcny.gov.
